

2nd annual ViEW meeting at AMEE 2005

'Competency at Graduation: Implications for the Curriculum and Assessment of Professional Skills and Attitudes' is the second ViEW (Veterinary Education Worldwide) workshop at AMEE, following the successful launch at AMEE 2004 of ViEW, an international special interest group for veterinary-related educators.

Topics will include assessment of clinical skills (including Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons Day I competencies (UK)), assessment of ethical and professional attitudes, and their influence on lifelong learning.

There will be input from both medical and veterinary educators, and emphasis will be placed on lessons that can be learned from a comparison of medical and veterinary education.

Facilitators for the workshop include:

Peter van Beukelen

University of Utrecht

Carol Gray

Liverpool University

Brigitte Grether

Zürich University

Stan Head

Royal Veterinary College

Susan Rhind

University of Edinburgh

Albert Scherpbier

Maastricht University

Donal Walsh

UC Davis School of Veterinary Medicine

Cost: Euros 160; £110

(includes lunch and refreshments)

For registration or more information, see the AMEE website:

www.amee.org

or contact Tracey Martin: amee@dundee.ac.uk Tel: 01382 631953

Please note the workshop code is T4: 'Assessment of professional skills and attitudes' in the draft AMEE programme, p8.

Veterinary Education Worldwide

AMEE

Competency at Graduation: Implications for the Curriculum and Assessment of Professional Skills and Attitudes

A one day workshop for colleagues with an interest in veterinary education

Tuesday 30th August, 2005
Vrije Universiteit, Amsterdam

Who should attend ?

- Anyone with an interest or involvement in the following fields of veterinary education:
 - undergraduate
 - postgraduate
 - veterinary nursing
 - Continuing Professional Development
 - Extra Mural Studies
- Anyone with an interest in multi-disciplinary curriculum development and assessment in a professional context
- Colleagues responsible for Teaching and Learning development at all Veterinary Schools

Why should you attend?

- To consider implications for curricula in defining 'Day 1' professional competencies
- To consider approaches to developing and assessing the 'reflective practitioner'
- To discuss exciting developments in veterinary education
- To meet colleagues involved in veterinary education from international institutions
- To learn more about ViEW - Veterinary Education Worldwide

The workshop forms part of the internationally renowned conference of the Association for Medical Education in Europe (AMEE), which has become the leading world conference for people with interests and responsibilities in the continuum of medical and associated professions education.

It is possible for participants to attend only this workshop, or to register for the whole AMEE conference. For how to register, see the back cover.

Provisional Programme

Presentations:

- Medical experiences of translating outcomes into the curriculum
 - Albert Scherpbier
- Veterinary experiences of translating outcomes into the curriculum
 - Peter van Beukelen, Brigitte Grether
- Assessment of Skills and Attitudes: The UC Davis on-line Evaluation System
 - Donal Walsh
- The development of reflective self-assessment via portfolio for communication skills assessment
 - Carol Gray
- OSCEs at the Royal Veterinary College
 - Stan Head

Group sessions (for all workshop participants):

- Translating competencies into the curriculum
- Designing an optimum assessment 'package' for the final clinical year

We look forward to seeing you in Amsterdam!

If you are interested in joining, or following the work of ViEW, visit the ViEW website: <http://www.veteducation.org>